[By Associated Press.]

Warsaw, June 28.—The artillery is reported to be causing seven-eighths of the casualties among Russians fighting the Germans. The infantry plays but little part in the Germanic attacks.

New Skoda shells weighing more than a ton, seventeen inches in diameter and sinking twenty feet into the earth before they explode, kills everyone within one hundred and fifty yards.

The heat from their explosion is so terrible it melts rifle barrels and the gases from the explosion rip the clothing off the soldiers bodies.

These shells are largely of Austrian invention.

THESE warm days when "Old Sol's" rays play havoc with perishable fruits and vegetables in short order, it is a satisfaction to know that you may have on your table for the noon meal, vegetables and farm products generally, which left the farm at dawn of the same day. And the cost is no greater—often less than you pay at other stores.

VICTORIANA HUERTA TAKEN IN CUSTODY

Conspiring To Incite Revolution in Friendly Country Was Charge That Met Him at El Paso.

[By Associated Press.]

El Paso, Texas, June 27.—Charges of conspiring to incite a revolution against a friendly country were filed Sunday against General Victoriana Huerta, former president of Mexico, who was placed under arrest at Newman, N. M., by federal officers.

Similar charges were filed against General Pascual Orozco, who was arrested at the same time.

Huerta was released Sunday night on $15,000 bond and Orozco on $7,500 bond.

General Huerta upon his arrival here was escorted by Federal officials and a squad of American troops to the federal building, where he conferred with representatives of the American department of justice. It was decided that General Huerta was under virtual detention pending instructions from Washington. Later Huerta and Orozco were removed to Fort Bliss upon request of the mayor of El Paso, owing to the crowd which gathered about the Federal building when it was learned that Huerta was there.

Met Huerta With U. S. Cavalrymen. Late Saturday night federal officials learned that Huerta was traveling toward El Paso on El Paso and Southwestern train No. 1. Zack L. Cobb, collector of customs at El Paso, acting for the State department, assisted by Clifford Beckham of Fort Worth, special agent for the department of justice, arranged to meet the train at Newman, accompanied by a small force of federal officers and 25 cavalrymen from Fort Bliss under Colonel George Morgan.

Huerta reached Newman at 6:40 a. m. and readily agreed to the request that he and General Orozco accompany them to the customs office in El Paso for a conference. The general was informed that he was being placed under arrest, but was to be given every courtesy.

Did Not Intend to Enter Mexico. "I did not intend to enter Mexico," Huerta said. "Perhaps I may return at some future time, but not in less than five years."

Word of Huerta's arrival spread rapidly and in a short time the streets around the federal building were jammed with an excited, eager throng. Fearing possible disorders or injury to Huerta by enemies from Mexico, Mayor Lee secured permission of federal and army authorities to transfer Huerta and General Orozco to Fort Bliss during their detention, where they are held in quarters.

ment if he (Huerta) would be persona grata to the United States if participating in Mexican affairs. Washington answered no. Iturbide then declined the offer of Huerta's services.
